The Dissertation or the Consulting Project

The Dissertation as part of the MSc programme students work on a project related to their academic interests and career aspirations. The Master's dissertation provides a good opportunity to apply theory and concepts learned in their courses to a real-world business environment. Students submit an individual 10,000 - word project using different types of datasets, as well as the writing of case studies and reports often based on summer internships.

The Consulting Project will see teams putting classroom knowledge into practice. Teams will tackle real challenges facing companies or organisations and solve real business problems. Following analysis, teams will prepare and present their concrete and practical solutions via a report. In the past, our teams have consulted a diverse range of companies from various sectors.
